1. The furnishing of the false information or supersession of any factual information in the Attestation Form would be a disqualification, and is likely to render the candidate unfit for employment under the Government.
2. If detained, arrested, prosecuted, bound down, fined, convicted, debarred, acquitted etc., subsequent to the completion and submission of this form, the details should be communicated immediately to the authorities to whom the attestation form has been sent early, failing which it will be deemed to be a suppression of factual information.
3. If the fact that false information has been furnished or that there has been suppression of any factual information in the Attestation Form comes to notice at any time during the service of a person, his services would be liable to be terminated.
